

HI-JINKS SHOW - SUNDAY 30th APRIL 2017

Mr Richard Lanni judged at the High Jinks Show held by the Scottish Welsh Pony and Cob Association. This show is run by them but the driving classes are open to all types and breeds, not just Welsh ponies and cobs. Six turnouts were forward on the day. This venue has a lovely large flat well drained ring and plenty of parking and warm up space. An ideal show to drive at, especially for less experienced turnouts.

There were two turnouts forward on the day for the Private Driving class, Caroline Watson driving her Welsh Section D, Llanarth Tango driven to a 1890 Dogcart by Mulliners of Birmingham and Kim Pearson driving her Welsh Cob X Stallion JD's El Dorado put to a 1902 Beaufort Cart. First place in this Private Driving Class went to Caroline Watson with Llanarth Tango and with Caroline and Kim Pearson with JD's El Dorado in second place.

There were four turnouts forward for the exercise class, a tandem of donkey's, two single donkey turnouts and a single pony.

Mr Lanni gave Claire Arnet and her tandem of donkey's, Baxter and Jools driven to a two wheel exercise vehicle first place and Sheena McConnell-Ferrie driving her donkey, Sydney to a two wheel exercise vehicle second place.

The next class was the Concours D'Elegance class. There were four turnouts forward. This class went to again went to Kim Pearson with JD's El Dorado with Caroline Watson with Llanarth Tango in second place.

Mr Lanni then presented the Championship and the Gladys Dale Memorial Trophy to Caroline Watson and Llanarth Tango, with Kim Pearson and JD's El Dorado as Reserve Champion.

Class 43 = Open Private Driving Class

- 1 = Caroline Watson driving Llanarth Tango
- 2 = Kim Pearson driving JD's El Dorado

Class 44 = Open Exercise Vehicle Driving Class

- 1 = Claire Arnet driving Baxter and Jools
- 2 = Sheena McConnell-Ferrie driving Sydney
- 3 = Alison Robertson driving Mick
- 4 = Susan Robson driving Llanarth Honeysuckle

Class 45 = Concours D'Elegance Driving Class

- 1 = Kim Pearson driving JD's El Dorado
- 2 = Caroline Watson driving Llanarth Tango
- 3 = Claire Arnet driving Baxter and Jools
- 4 = Sheena McConnell-Ferrie driving Sydney

CHAMPION = Caroline Watson driving Llanarth Tango

RESERVE CHAMPION = Kim Pearson driving JD's El Dorado